Merit Scholarship Application

Purpose: Merit scholarship awards are intended to provide financial assistance to RESDC members' immediate family who are outstanding high school seniors planning to attend college.

Requirements: Applicants must have good moral character and have achieved high personal and academic goals including sufficient community service to engender pride in himself/herself, the people who recommend them, and to members of this Granting Association. The applicant shall submit the following:

- A. A current transcript certified by an authorized school official.
- B. Two adult references that address the questions on the enclosed Reference Report form. Ensure references provide their name, address, and phone number. Reference Reports from the Nominating Member or other relatives are not acceptable.
- C. The completed application, signed by the applicant.
- D. The applicant's personal statement, signed by the applicant.

Please enclose only the required items. Adding irrelevant/non-essential documents does not enhance the applicant's possibility of being selected.

JUDGMENT: Applicants will be judged on their statement, all-around academic record, and school and community service.
